

Saturday, January 28th, 2017

4th Annual Symposium on
The Child and Family
Hosted by UC Merced

Strong Families: Fostering Healthy
Parent-Child Relationships and Child Development

Parent-Child Attachment: Developmental Foundations and Lasting Impacts – Dr. Eric Walle

The Role of Caregiver-Child Relationships in Young Children's Prosocial Development – Dr. Emily Newton

Stressful Thoughts, Unhealthy Lives: Examining the Effects of Stress and Rumination on Well-being – Dr. Matthew Zawadzki

Family Systems Perspectives on Healthy Child Development – Dr. Alexandra Main

Presentations by UC
Merced Faculty
And Guests

Cutting-edge Research

Small Group Discussions

Certificates for Professional Development

Free parking
Food & Beverages
Provided

Meeting begins at 9:00am
and ends at 2:15pm

Optional tours of the Early Childhood Education Center
& Research Labs

$20 Registration Fee

Raffles & Prizes

EARLY REGISTRATION RECOMMENDED

(Registration Closes 1/20)

For more information or to register, visit:

<https://intelforms.ucmerced.edu/Form/developingchild17>

Contact: Jeff Gilger
(jgilger@ucmerced.edu) or
Danielle Waite
(dwaite2@ucmerced.edu)